Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, When South Dakota needed help, Chuck Luke left the executive suites of Citibank and journeyed to Madison, South Dakota, to change the mission of Dakota State College from a teachers' college to a computer institute; and,

WHEREAS, Chuck Luke organized, guided, stimulated and supervised the development of innovative new programs in Information Systems and Business; acquired microcomputers and planned for the installation of an IBM Mainframe; and established computer training for faculty and staff, including introducing Dakota State College faculty to IBM's Corporate Information Systems Education Facility; and,

WHEREAS, Chuck is the father of DSC's new mission, but his work at DSC was done, and he returned to the executive ranks of Citibank in 1984; and,

WHEREAS, Chuck and his wife, Mary Ann, will be leaving South Dakota for Wheaton, Illinois, on August 19, and they will be sorely missed by their friends, neighbors and the people of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, A block party in the Lukes' honor is being held on August 10, 1985, so that their many friends can thank them for all their contributions to their community and the larger community of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, on behalf of a people grateful for the many contributions the Lukes have made to our State by their citizenship, do hereby proclaim August 10, 1985, as in South Dakota, and I join their many friends in wishing them a hearty farewell and a heartfelt thank you for being South Dakotans in our time of need.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Ninth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Five

William Janklow
